

47 – THE PASSAGE TO ROME (27:1-44)

I. The Journey to Fair Havens (27:1-8)

A. The decision to leave (27:1)

- When the time was determined to go to Italy, Paul was given to _____.

B. The trip to Sidon (27:2-3)

- Paul and his companions sailed along the coast toward Asia Minor and landed in _____.
- Julius treated Paul with kindness and allowed him the freedom to _____.

C. The trip to Myra (27:4-5)

- Sailing to the north of Cyprus to avoid the rough seas, they came to _____.

D. The trip to Fair Havens (27:6-8)

- Taking another ship to Italy, they sailed through difficult waters until _____.

II. Paul's Advice (27:9-12)

A. The timing (27:9)

- After spending much time at Fair Havens, the sailing conditions were _____.

B. Paul's concern (27:10)

Empowered for the Mission: The Book of Acts

- Paul expressed that he perceived that their voyage will end in _____.

C. The centurion's decision (27:11-12)

- Listening to others, the centurion was persuaded to go on to a safer harbor to _____.

III. Disaster at Sea (27:13-44)

A. The Euroclydon (27:13-20)

- Setting out in good weather, they soon faced a seasonal cyclone known as _____.
- Because they could not head into the wind, they allowed their ship to _____.
- They secured their small skiff aboard the ship with _____.
- Because of the rough seas, they began to _____.

B. Paul's encouragement (27:21-26)

- Paul tells everyone that they should have listened to him and they should _____.
- He tells them to be encouraged as no one will lose his life as _____.
- An angel stated that he must be brought to Caesar and everyone sailing with him will _____.
- They are not to be afraid and must run aground on _____.

C. The escaping sailors (27:27-32)

- After the fourteenth night, the sailors looked to _____.
- Paul told the centurion that they will not survive unless _____.
- The soldiers cut the skiff loose and _____.

D. Paul's final encouragement (27:33-38)

- Paul encouraged the passengers to _____.
- The number of people on the ship was _____.

E. Ship Wreck (27:37-44)

- Seeing a bay with the beach, they planned to _____.
- As the ship ran aground and was breaking up, the soldiers planned to _____.
- But the centurion wanted to keep Paul alive and kept them from _____.
- They abandoned the ship and _____.