

28 - Warnings & Personal Greetings (Romans 16:1-27)

I. Commendation (16:1-2)

A. Paul's messenger (16:1)

- Paul asks them to warmly greet his messenger, Phoebe, who is from _____.

B. Instructions (16:2)

- He asks them to take care of her in _____.
- Since she has helped others, they are to help her in _____.

II. Greetings (16:3-16)

A. Many are greeted (16:1-15)

- Paul sends his greeting to many dear friends who are _____.

B. The manner of greeting (16:16a)

- Paul tells them to greet each other with _____.

C. More greeting (16:16b)

- Paul tells them that the churches greet _____.

III. Warnings (16:17-20)

A. Identify troublemakers (16:17)

- Paul tells his readers to take note of those who _____.
- The problems include _____.

B. The nature of troublemakers (16:18)

- They do not serve Jesus Christ, but the _____.
- They deceive the simple and immature with _____.

C. Their testimony (16:19a)

- Paul states that they had a _____.

The Reality of Salvation: The Letter to the Romans

- Paul points out that he was _____.

D. The encouragement (16:19b)

- Paul wants them to be wise in what is good and _____.

E. The future hope (16:20)

- Paul proclaims that the God of peace will _____.
- Paul bestows _____ upon his readers.

IV. Additional Greetings (16:21-24)

A. From fellow workers (16:21)

- Paul sends greetings from _____.

B. From his scribe (16:22)

- Tertius, who _____, sent his greetings to the church at Rome.

C. From others (16:23)

- Paul sends greeting from _____.

D. Another blessing (16:24)

- Paul bestows a _____ upon his readers.

V. Doxology (16:25-27)

- Paul gives glory to God and Jesus Christ _____.