

Lesson 10
Virtues and Rewards of Wisdom
Proverbs 8:1-21

I. Wisdom's Call (8:1-5)

A. Introduction (8:1-3)

- Wisdom offers her services to all who _____.
- Wisdom is open, not _____.
- Wisdom continually attests to _____.

B. The Invitation (8:4-5)

- The invitation from wisdom embraces _____.
- The invitation for the simple and foolish is to gain _____.

II. The Virtues of Wisdom (8:6-11)

A. Noble just and true (8:6-9)

1. Noble (8:6)

- Wisdom calls us to listen because it has _____.
- What Wisdom has to say is _____.

2. Reliable (8:7)

- Wisdom states things that are _____.

3. Just (8:8)

- There is _____ in Wisdom's teaching.

4. True (8:9)

- Wisdom's words are _____.
- The teachings of Wisdom are _____.

B. The invitation (8:10)

- Wisdom invites us to choose _____.
- True wealth is derived from Wisdom, not _____.

C. Wisdom is valuable (8:11)

- Wisdom is more desirable than _____.
- The value of Wisdom is based on its _____.

III. The Rewards of Wisdom (8:12-21)

A. Wisdom's companion (8:12)

- If a person has wisdom he also has _____.

B. Wisdom's relationship with evil (8:13)

- One who fears the LORD and is wise will _____.

C. Wisdom's reward of sound counsel (8:14)

- Wisdom enables people to give _____.
- Wisdom enables people to have _____.

D. Wisdom's use by rulers (8:15-16)

- Leaders who rule by wisdom do well and _____.

E. Mutual Love (8:17)

- Wisdom loves those who _____.

F. The value of Wisdom (8:18-19)

- Those who find wisdom obtain _____.

G. The direction of Wisdom (8:20)

- Wisdom guides us along the path of _____.

H. The reward of Wisdom (8:21)

- Wisdom rewards those who _____.