

Lesson 35
The Proverbs of Solomon Compiled by Hezekiah – Part 1
Proverbs 25:1-29:27

I. Introduction (25:1)

- This section contains Solomon's proverbs that were collected by _____.

II. The proverbs (25:2-29:27)

1. Providence (25:2)

- God has chosen not to reveal everything about _____.
- In order to make proper decisions, kings must _____.

2. Counsel (25:3)

- Rulers, with their responsibilities, need not reveal _____.

3. Stability (25:4-5)

- Just as dross is removed from silver, so _____ are to be removed from the king.

4. Humility (25:6-7)

- It is wiser to wait to be promoted, than be _____.

5. Speech (25:8)

- One must not be too eager to testify, lest he be put to _____.

6. Quarrels (25:9-10)

- It is best to keep personal quarrels private to avoid _____.

7. Speech (25:11-12)

a. Profound (25:11)

- An appropriate and properly timed word can be _____.

b. Rebuke (25:12)

- A rebuke that is _____ is of lasting value.

8. Faithfulness (25:13)

- A faithful messenger lifts the spirits of those who _____.

9. Speech (25:14-15)

a. Bragging (25:14)

- The promises of a braggart are _____.

b. Patient and mild (25:15)

- Calm and patient speech can break down _____.

10. Moderation (25:16-17)

- Overindulgence can become _____.
- Do not wear out your welcome with _____.

11. False witnesses (25:18)

- Giving false testimony against a neighbor can wound a _____ as weapons.

12. Character Traits (25:19)

- An unfaithful person is _____.

13. Conduct (25:20-22)

a. Inappropriate (25:20)

- Being _____ does much harm.

b. Kindness to enemies (25:21-22)

- People who treat their enemies with kindness will bring _____.

14. Speech (25:23)

- Sly words will bring an _____.