

LESSON 5
THE BOOK OF DANIEL
INTRODUCTION

I. The Author and Occasion

- Daniel was a Jew who was carried off in _____.
- The book covers material until _____.
- The book was written in two languages: _____.
- Chapters _____ are written in Hebrew and Chapters _____ in Aramaic.
- If he were 16 when captured, he was _____.
- Daniel may have lived until _____.
- Little is known of _____.
- Daniel was born _____ (Dan. 1:3,6).
- He was _____ (Daniel 1:4).
- From the testimony of Ezekiel, he was known for _____ (Ezek. 14:14,20) and _____ (Ezek. 28:3).
- The book was probably completed in _____.
- The prophet Daniel is mentioned by _____ (Matthew 24:15, Mark 13:14).

II. The Purpose of the Book

- The book is the record of _____.
- The book was written during the _____.
- There was a need for a new testimony concerning _____.
- It is not the purpose of the book to give _____.
- It is a revelation of God's program which culminates in _____.
- The book emphasizes God's sovereign authority over _____.

- The book was also written to outline graphically the prophetic period known as “_____” (Luke 21:24).
- The Book of Daniel marks the course of Gentile history through that extended period in which _____.
- The Book reveals Israel’s future deliverance and the blessings she will enjoy in the _____.

III. The Approach to the Study

- We will use the _____.
- This study will see a distinction between _____.
- This study will view the tribulation as a _____.
- The study will view the millennium as a _____.

